

Disaster Management & Homeland Security

Earn Academic Credit for Your CSTI Course

Cal Poly Continuing Education has partnered with California Specialized Training Institute, California Emergency Management Agency in order to offer courses for academic credit. Your course credit is recorded on a Cal Poly transcript, verifying that courses are completed to Cal Poly academic standards. This course credit may apply toward the Cal Poly M.S. in Public Policy or other professional degree programs at other campuses within the California State University system. (Check with your advisor for approval before you enroll for academic credit)

Course Listing:

CSTI Courses

E	Introduction to Emergency Management: Earthquake
T1	Terrorism I: International Terrorism
CCM	Crisis Communications & the Media: 1st Level
DR	Disaster Recovery
MSO	Managing Sustained Operations
DP	Disaster Planning
EEDCE	Enhanced Exercise Design, Conduct and Evaluation

Cal Poly Courses

DMHS S351	Introduction to Emergency Management
DMHS S352	Terrorism: Understanding the Threat
DMHS S353	Introduction to Crisis Communications
DMHS S401	Disaster Recovery
DMHS S405	Managing Sustained Operations
DMHS S432	Disaster Operations Planning
DMHS S466	Enhanced Exercise Design

In order to receive Cal Poly academic credit, you can register online at:

<http://www.continuing-ed.calpoly.edu/academic/csti.html>

Or call the Cal Poly Continuing Education office at (805) 756-2053

Fee: $255

Deadline: Register online or by phone before the first day of class. (Credit cannot be issued once the course has started.) Before you enroll for academic credit, you must be enrolled in the course through CSTI, www.csti.ca.gov

Please direct any questions regarding the course(s) or registration process to Cal Poly Continuing Education